

Kindergarten Handwriting Curriculum

In 2009 we adopted the new handwriting curriculum "Handwriting Without Tears." The program uses multisensory and developmentally appropriate teaching strategies for children. This hands-on approach helps teachers meet the needs of each child's unique learning style. In this program the children will develop motor skills, language skills, understanding of size and shape and positioning skills through music and movement.

